

MISSOURI VALLEY SWEEPED BY STORMS

RAIN FOR TWENTY-FOUR HOURS REMAINS RESIDUENTS OF FAMOUS FLOOD.

TWO BOYS ARE DROWNED

Tried to Ford Stream Where the Bridge Was Down—Raining
Hard in Omaha.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 6.—Railroad traffic to the north and west of St.
Joseph is demoralized today as a result of the heavy rains last night.
Considerable damage to wheat is also reported.

Boys Drown.
While attempting to cross a swollen stream near Marysville, last night,
where a bridge was washed away,
Charles, Daniel, and John Brewer, farmer boys, with their team, were drowned. Three other persons are also reported missing.

Heavy Rain.
Omaha, Neb., July 6.—A rain storm, which began last evening, continued fiercely all night and reports from resulting floods indicate a heavy damage along the Missouri Valley.

In Iowa.
Des Moines, Ia., July 6.—Constant rains since Saturday night have done thousands of dollars of damage in Iowa, inundating the lowlands, washing away railroad embankments, destroying crops and interfering with traffic. The Great Western between Des Moines and Kansas City is badly washed out. A Kansas City train is stranded at Council Bluffs.

In Missouri.
Chillicothe, Mo., July 6.—Hard rains and the rapid rising of Medicine creek, northeast of here, has brought the creek out of its banks at Galt today and washed out eight miles of St. Paul railroad tracks.

PRESIDENT ATTENDS CELEBRATION TODAY

French ambassadors, the governor of New York, and other dignitaries, reached Plattsburgh today in time to participate in some of the events making up the program of the second day of the Lake Champlain tricenten-nary celebration. The distinguished guests witnessed a presentation of the Indian drama of "Hawatch," and of Fort Ticonderoga, which is now being restored as it was in Revolutionary days.

Tomorrow the presidential party will come to Plattsburgh for what promised to be the biggest day of the entire celebration. Three nations will be officially represented. Troops of the United States and Canada will fraternize in the events of the day and the national guard of New York and Vermont likewise will take part.
The principal oration will be delivered by United States Senator Elihu Root.

UNEASY LIES HEAD THAT WEARS CROWN

Heavy Guard Maintaining Today for Eighteen Hundred Miles While Czar is on Trip to Celebration.

St. Petersburg, July 6.—Not in the history of Russian railways have greater precautions ever been observed to protect the imperial train than those which have been perfected when the czar started for Poltava to attend the celebration beginning tomorrow of the 200th anniversary of the overthrow of Charles XII. of Sweden. The preparations for the trip had been in hand for weeks and the train had already run every foot of the route and every particle of the apparatus of the train and the track had been subjected to the most careful inspection. Station-masters, operators and track inspectors at every station along the route, no matter how small, were imperatively required to be on duty several hours before the imperial train was due, to examine personally as to signals and switches, and to see that all was in proper working order. As a further precaution against any attempted outrage on the part of the terrorists the whole line of 1,800 miles of railway between St. Petersburg and Poltava was guarded by troops.

CHICAGO COUPLE IN DUAL SUICIDE PACT

and woman who yesterday took their

St. Joseph river here, were H. Lindwere on their wedding trip.

A NARROW ESCAPE FROM BAD INJURIES

Heavy Tiling on Pittsburg Court House Torn From Roof By Weight of Largest Flag
In the World.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 6.—The largest flag in the world unfurled here at noon yesterday pulled a thousand pounds of the roofing from the court house today. Many persons had incidentally escaped from injury when the tile crashed.

TARIFF BILL UP TO SENATE

PASSED FROM COMMITTEE AS A WHOLE TODAY.

TOBACCO SCHEDULES UP

Came in at 1:20 This Afternoon And Will Be Voted on Soon.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—The tariff bill passed from the committee as a whole to the senate at 1:20 this afternoon.
The senate thereupon took a recess until 2:30 to afford time to obtain a printed bill as amended in the committee of the whole.
Further discussion on the tobacco tax was postponed until tomorrow to allow the full committee, including the democratic members, an opportunity to further consider the question.
The committee today completed its consideration of the internal revenue provision fixing the taxes on tobacco and it was reported to the senate soon afterwards.

CABOOSE FELL DOWN BANK; TWO INJURED

Conductor Voss and Brakeman Hogan Hurt at South End of New Yards Saturday Night.

Saturday night about half-past ten o'clock, a caboose on an extra freight train on the North-Western road, going south, was tipped over on its side and fell down an embankment.
The occupants of the car, Conductor L.
H. Voss and brakeman Edward Hogan, both of Chicago, were injured.
Voss had his right arm badly crushed and the brakeman suffered a concussion of the head. Lighted lamps in the car set fire to it and it was completely burned. The accident occurred at the extreme end of the South Janesville yards. A brake lever and a brake rod on a butter car eight car-lengths ahead of the caboose, fell off and became wedged in between the rails on the switch connecting the north and south leads. An empty boxcar just ahead of the caboose was knocked down and the pipe line connecting the derrick was broken. The conductor and brakeman were brought in to the city, Dr. E. P. Woods looking after their injuries. They returned to Chicago Saturday night.

MRS. ELIZA SPIKE HAS PASSED AWAY

Well-Known and Beloved Edgerton
Woman Passed Away Sunday Night at Madison.

Edgerton, July 6.—The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Spike, who died Sunday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Hedges, at Madison, will be held at the Congregational church here Wednesday morning at 10:15.
Mrs. Spike had been in poor health for some time, but was not considered dangerously ill until about a week ago, when a consultation of doctors was held and it was discovered she was suffering from colitis, which affected the heart and caused her death. Mrs. Spike had lived in this community for many years and had endured herself in the hearts of the people and will be sadly missed by her many friends. She was a splendid Christian, an ideal mother, and a kind neighbor, ever willing to lend a helping hand in trouble or need. She leaves to mourn her loss three sons and two daughters—Jesse Martin and George Spike of Haverhill, W. Spike of this city, Mrs. W. S. Hedges of Madison and Mrs. S. P. Oakley of Oswego, besides many other relatives who have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their deep afflic-tion.

CHIEF O'HARE IS WELL KNOWN HERE

Kenosha Police Officer Who Was Shot
Sunday Night Has Relatives
in Janesville.

Chief of Police Owen O'Hare of Kenosha, who was shot by a horse thief early in the evening of July fourth, is today reported to be resting easily and it is thought that, if internal complications do not arise, he will recover. Mr. O'Hare, who has been chief of the Kenosha police for seven years, and who is exceedingly popular in and about Kenosha, is well known in Janesville and has relatives residing in this city. His brother, the "burnt" dry goods store is a cousin,
and Mrs. A. Smith, an aunt. Mr.
O'Hare is also known to the members of the Janesville police force, and to the members of the Elks and Eagles.
The attack in which Mr. O'Hare almost lost his life was a particularly dastardly one and has stirred the citizens of Kenosha to an extent that bodes ill for the criminal if he is taken.
The chief was taking a horse thief suspect to his office when the suspect stepped behind him and discharged a heavy revolver into his back. For a time it was thought the wounded man would not recover and threats were made by those citizens who had joined in the search to lynch the criminal in event of his capture. It is now thought that the man is a notorious horse thief named Pined, from Waukegan.

ALFRED SUMMERS IS FOUND NOT GUILTY

Action Brought Against Him By City
Was Dismissed After Evidence
Had Been Taken This Morning.

In municipal court this morning the action brought by the City of Janesville against Alfred Summers, on complaint of J. B. Connors, for removing gravel from North Division street between First and Second streets, on complaint of J. B. Connors, was dismissed after the court had heard the evidence. The leveling of the street in that section seemed to the court to be justified by the peculiar topography in that section of the city and the location of Mr. Summers' lot.

Killed by Train: When the C. & N.
W. train from DeKalb arrived here shortly after ten o'clock last evening the remains of a man and a horse on the east end of a trestle told the story of a terrible tragedy. Neither name nor particulars regarding the catastrophe could be learned.

A SHEBOYGAN PAPER HAS CHANGED HANDS

BULLET WENT THRO' WINDOW AND LAMP

At Home of W. F. Palmer on Court Street Monday Morning—Family
Was Away at the Time.

No less than fourteen revolvers were taken away from boys and men by the police during the celebration yesterday and the club's desk looked like a small arsenal this morning. The wisdom of this course was amply demonstrated by two incidents which occurred during the morning.
W. F. Palmer and family returned to their home on Court street at noon to discover that a bullet had crashed through the plate glass library window and the glass shade of the reading lamp on the center-table. The distorted pellet of lead lay upon the table on the further side of the lamp.
About eight o'clock in the morning the servant girl in the rear portion of the house heard a sharp report but attributed it to the slamming of a door.
Two bullet-holes through the side of Joseph Weber Jr.'s home on North Washington street also testify to somebody's fool carelessness.

STAND IS VERY SPICY TODAY

TOM TAGGART'S NAME USED

Says That Her Accuser Wished He Had Been There When She Was Raped.

Chicago, July 6.—The name Tom Taggart of French Lick Springs, Ind., the former chairman of the democratic national committee, was brought in to the record of the Ella Gingles trial here today.
The young Irish lace maker on cross examination, was dealing with the story of her visit to Miss Harriet Gingles at the Washington hotel, when, according to Miss Gingles, she was forcibly disrobed by Miss Harriet and Miss Kenyon.
"Was any man mentioned," assistant states attorney Short asked.
"Yes, it was Tom Taggart, I believe."

"Miss Gingles," she said, "If Taggart were only here."

Claimed But a Few Victims Yesterday.

bile parade last night, while the machine owned by L. C. Brewer was crossing the public library, the twelve-year old son of Earl Hammon, Eddie, while trying to detach one of the Japanese lanterns from the front spring was struck and run over by the heavy car. Although badly bruised, the boy was not seriously injured and was conveyed to his home on North Main

FORTY-FOUR DEAD; 2,361 ARE HURT

BANE FOURTH IN MANY CITIES CUTS DOWN FATALITY LIST.

MORE INJURED THIS YEAR

While 12 Less Were Killed, 462 More Were Injured in Celebration—Loss by Fire $400,865 Greater Than in 1908.

Chicago, July 6.—More rigid laws and the growth of public sentiment for a sane celebration of the Fourth have had their result all over the country in reducing the number of killed and wounded in the annual holiday.

Full returns of the two-day celebration this year show a falling off in the number of killed of 12 from the record of 1908. There were 44 fatalities reported at two o'clock this morning, as against 56 at the same time last year.

A more careful enumeration of the accidents by the police of the larger cities and the extending of the count to the smaller towns caused an apparent increase in the list of injured. Figures compiled at two o'clock this morning showed 2,361 injured throughout the country, as against 1,899 in 1908.

There also was an increase in the fire losses caused by the celebration this year, the total reported being $724,575, as against $257,960 in 1908. The greater part of this increase in the loss is accounted for, however, by a single fire in Spokane, Wash., which destroyed property to the value of $350,000.

Chicago Has One Dead.

Chicago and its suburbs gave strong evidence of the progress which has been made in stopping the slaughter in the path of the rejoicing over the nation's freedom. The statistics of 12 dead and 114 injured a year ago were revolutionary. Only one death had been reported at two o'clock this morning, and the total number of injured was less than 60.

Of the accidents which were placed on the police records only half a dozen were serious, and it was estimated the fatalities would not by any chance be more than 20.

Cleveland, O., probably made the best record of any city of its size in the country in the fight against the noise and perils of the day. While there were ten persons killed and two injured during the one day celebration in 1908, the two-day festivity in 1909 was passed without a single death or injury serious enough to require the attention of a physician. This was due to the fact that the firing and even sale of fireworks or firecrackers was forbidden within the city limits.

Milwaukee Has No Deaths.

Milwaukee, another leader in the sane Fourth movement, reported only 22 persons injured during the two days this year, as against one killed and 47 injured in 1908.

Washington escaped this year without an accident, where 41 persons were seriously injured in the previous year, and Los Angeles, Cal., and Providence, R. I., cut in half the list of victims of the day by the enforcement of their laws.

One of the most notable of the smaller cities which succeeded in stopping the losses was Racine, Wis. There, the use of fireworks, except under the guidance of experts, was prohibited and despite the fact that there were 15,000 visitors in the city, ended there by the homecoming, there were only two accidents reported.

Jackson, Mich., also had the quietest day on record. There were no fireworks allowed within the city limits there and no accidents. In Tacoma, Wash., the anti-fireworks ordinance was fully carried out and no injuries followed the celebration.

Providence, R. I., which also forbade the use of fireworks or firecrackers, had only one serious accident and ten minor ones as the result of the day's work.

FAVORS RELIGIOUS LIBERTY.

Taft Would Let All Worship as They Wish.

Norwich, Conn., July 6.—President Taft was the chief figure in the celebration of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of this historic old New England town. In an address to the people, after a fine military parade and civic display, the president finding a theme in the church influence in the foundation of Norwich, took occasion to express his views on the liberty of religious belief.

He pleaded that every man should be allowed to worship God in his own way. The president declared amid laughter that the American forefathers came to this country ostensibly to escape religious intolerance but as a matter of fact in order that they might follow out their own religious ideas in their own way and with a large degree of intolerance toward any other form of belief.

Ovation to Prince Ito.

Seoul, July 6.—Prince Ito, former resident general of Korea, and now president of the privy council of Japan, arrived today to pay a farewell visit to the emperor of Korea. The prince received a tremendous ovation on his arrival.

Representative Cushman Weaker.

THOUSANDS SEE AERONAUT DROP 500 FEET TO DEATH

Shots Fired by Fourth Celebrators Mistaken for Signal to Cut Parachute Loose.

Portland, Mo., July 6.—As 5,000 persons looked on in horror, James Corcoran, an aeronaut of Lowell, Mass., fell 500 feet at a Fourth of July celebration and was killed. He mistook shots fired by celebrators for a signal to cut loose his parachute.

Three parachutes were attached to the local balloon for a triple jump by the aeronaut. It was arranged that Corcoran should drop with his parachutes when he heard a certain number of revolver shots from Prof. Joseph Laroux on the ground, after the balloon had reached a height of approximately 5,000 feet.

Corcoran had barely left the ground before promiscuous firing of revolvers began, but Laroux called out to him to keep on up. Above a few hundred feet it is hard for an aeronaut to judge correctly his exact height as he swings on the bar, and was certain the signal had come for him to cut loose in the parachute, for he was soon to drop from the balloon, although he was barely 500 feet in the air.

The distance was too short for the parachute to open properly and the man dropped like a plummet, striking the ground about 1,000 feet from where the ascension was made.

Grand Rapids, Wis., July 6.—Professor Ehrhart, a balloonist, who made an ascension here last night, fell into a mill-pond and was drowned. Ehrhart came here from Chicago.

OBSERVE CALVIN'S BIRTHDAY.

Corner-Stone of Monument to Reformation Laid at Geneva Celebration.

Geneva, Switzerland, July 6.—Today was laid in this ancient city the cornerstone of a massive monument to the Reformation. The ceremonies were most solemn and impressive and were participated in by representatives of a number of the great peoples of the world. The event was a central feature of the celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the birth of John Calvin, which has drawn to Geneva a large number of prominent Protestants from numerous lands.

Calvin was born on July 10, 1509, and in 1536 he laid the foundation of the church of Geneva. His grave, at his own request, was left unmarked and cannot now be identified.

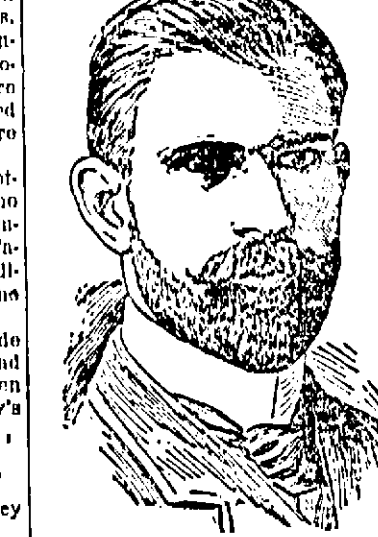

The monument whose cornerstone was laid today will comprise an extensive group of statuary, with appropriate architectural environment. The central figures will be those of the reformers of Geneva itself—Pareti, Calvin, Knox and Beza. On either side will be representative men like Coligny of France, William the Silent of Holland and Oliver Cromwell of England. The figure for America will be a typical Puritan father.

Bonano

THE HOT FRUIT TABLE DRINK

Bonano is a beverage with the sunshine of the tropics in it. It is made wholly from fully ripened bananas—different from and better than the artificially ripened ones you know. These bananas of different varieties are harvested and dried in the tropics, then granulated, roasted and blended under our own special processes.

The product—Bonano—is made into a drink just as easily as coffee or tea is made. But the result is different—a delicious, snappy drink with a fruit flavor entirely its own, a beverage that is wholesome and nourishing.

There's health in every sip.

You can give it to the children morning, noon and night—the more they drink the healthier they'll be.

You can drink it yourself; when you get up in the morning, for a clear head during the day; at luncheon and dinner; and before retiring, to insure a sound healthful sleep, the kind you used to know.

Bonano should be a household word with you from today on—a word that stands for clear eyes, rosy cheeks and vigorous health.

Get a can at your grocer's today—a 25 cent can will make 75 cups of a delicious hot drink, with the sunshine of the tropics in it.

If your grocer hasn't it, send us the coupon and we'll mail you a sample package and a booklet.

MR. TAFT AND THE PARTY PLEDGES

Prince William once remarked of the late, Marquis of Salisbury that he was a little painted to look like iron. President Taft has yet to prove that this scathing criticism shall not be applied to him. He has the opportunity of making a demonstration in the tariff matter now before congress, and certainly his remarks at Yale are of good augury.

He said there that the republican party must keep its promises. Senator Aldrich says in effect that there were no promises, but only the pretense of one which consequently is not going to be kept if he can help it. The leader of the senate has dictated his own terms in tariff bills before now, and Mr. Taft has his work cut out. It is hard for politicians of the Aldrich stripe to differentiate between tactical gains on the floor of the senate and the convincing of the independent voter outside. By a trick the question of income tax is shelved and the fatuous regulars of the republican party in the senate hall it as a victory. "Another such victory," said Pyrrhus, "and I return to Epirus without a single soldier."

If, however, Mr. Taft is in earnest, and Mr. Aldrich is not the President of the United States, he will veto the tariff bill in anything like its present form. This is the best he can do for the people of this country, but even at that it restores the Dingley tariff. The republican party was bound morally and by the word of every one of its consequences who made a speech in the last election, to reduce the indefensible rates enacted in the Dingley law.

There is such a thing as being too clever, and the republican party may at the next congressional election find out the disadvantages attaching to misdirected ability.

WEATHER AS A WHEAT ASSET

For fully two weeks the country has been favored with very acceptable harvesting weather. There has been a judicious mingling of clearness and cloudiness. Nothing could be more favorable to the worker in the harvest fields than this alternating of warm sunshine with a screen of clouds.

Under such skies decided progress has been made in cutting wheat. The rattle of the reaper has now reached against and west line drawn through Wilmington on the east and St. Louis on the west. Harvesting wheat is in full swing over half of Kansas, from which state the estimators are willing to grant a yield of 75,000,000 bushels.

Although there has been some damage from rains locally to wheat faring south while in shock, nevertheless it takes a good deal of rain to do much injury at this stage of its progress. The main drawback is in the delay to threshing, which more and more is done directly from the fields. Good weather for a clear month is highly desirable for the purpose of reaping, threshing and storing the winter wheat crop. Thus far there has been little disappointment. The country enters July, which is proverbially a good weather month for harvesting, with practically 300,000,000 bushels of the total indicated winter wheat crop to be harvested.

Thus far results from early threshing districts give a surprisingly good yield. In some cases lands which were figured in the abandoned acreage in May have yielded as much as twenty-five bushels an acre, which is nearly twice as much as the average yield of the country. Although it is not to be expected that the 7.2 per cent of abandoned acreage will turn out so well everywhere, there is no doubt that the winter wheat belt profited greatly during the last thirty days of its process of ripening by favorable conditions of the weather.

Now that the Fourth is over and everyone satisfied, it is time to get together on the proposition of boosting Janesville systematically. If the city had a good, live, hustling advertising agent who was paid a fair salary and who devoted all his time to the work it would work wonders. Other cities have tried the plan and found it successful; why not Janesville?

It is a trifle too early to make any predictions, but there is something liable to drop when the state board of control gets busy on its appointments for different schools for the coming year. If they are not hide-bound, dyed-in-the-wool reformers who are blind to anything but the word "reform" in capital letters they will do something.

The burlesque on the city street car lines were perhaps a little too realistic to show to the citizens of neighboring towns. The real articles were also an exhibition and perfume balanced through the parade at inopportune moments on several occasions.

Even the politicians are picking up their ears and watching which way the wind will blow. There are enough candidates for Governor out in the republican ranks to stock several states with candidates and only one man can be nominated.

No better evidence is needed for the compulsory introduction of the all-steel passenger car than that during the first three months of the year 663 persons were killed and over 15,000 injured on the railroads of the country.

Taft evidently believes that when a party makes pledges they should keep them. His idea of politics is at variance with that of the professional type who have so long controlled the destinies of the nation.

That the western potato crop will be a large one this year is assured. An Illinois farmer has trained a flock of ducks to eat potato bugs, and hires them out to neighbors at $1 a day each.

The Eagle has screamed pretty generally and the entire civilized world knows that the United States celebrated its birthday yesterday.

Uncle Walt of Emporia

By WALT MASON
(Copyright, 1909, by George Matthews Adams.)

The office said: Methinks I'll try the celebrated plan, endorsed by all philosophers—"I'll go and seek the man."

THE OFFICE And so with quite a knowing air it came down from its perch, and took a lantern in its hand, and started on the search. The patriots were numerous—the men who bleed and die to save the country's honor and to get their share of pie; and when they learned the purpose that the Office had in view, they quickly damned their hunting dogs and gave the View Hallow. They chased that Office up and down through gulley, swamp and creek, they trailed it down with bloodhounds and they shined it with a brick; they pursued it through the alleys, all the frantic, yelling swarm, and they smote it with a cleaver and they gave it chloroform. And a Sage who saw the hunting, from the window of his lair, murmured sadly: "I'm too bald or I would surely tear my hair! Here's a plan we seem have hoisted since philosophy began, knocked to everlasting flinders! Office dare not seek the man!"

MONROE FORFEITED TO FOOTVILLE IN 5th INNING

Monroe Nine Feared Defeat And Declined to Quit Before the End of the Game.
(Special to the Gazette.)
Footville, July 5.—Four gripped the hearts of the Monroe baseball players yesterday and they forfeited the game played at the celebration at Broadhead, to the Footville White Sox, in the fifth inning. The score 1 to 0 and Footville was at bat. There were three men on bases and Footville was batting when he was struck by a pitched ball. Broadhead protested against the ruling of the umpire that Footville should be given two runs, saying that the man struck at the ball. They refused to play longer and forfeited the game. Had they not given up Footville would undoubtedly have secured a nice, shining coat of white wash over them. Kavanaugh and Harmon were the batteries for Broadhead, and Fairman and Cheney for the White Sox. Pierce, of Broadhead, was the umpire.

What Fried Liver is Good For.

A guest at an Atchison home came for three days, and was still there at the end of five weeks. "I ate all kinds of meat," she remarked one day as she passed her plate for the third helping, "but fried liver." That night there was fried liver for supper; fried liver the next day for breakfast, dinner and supper, and the next day when the guest was asked to have fried liver, she packed her trunk and went home.—Atchison Globe.

Heart to Heart Talks.

CHIPS ON THEIR SHOULDERS.

"The goblins 'll git ye if ye don't watch out."

Thus the Jingo of England and Germany to the peoples of those countries, whose governments are running a race in naval equipment.

England has long held the supremacy of the seas—ever since Nelson's victory at Trafalgar. But now Germany has built a navy that rivals England's war fleets, and John Bull in his right little, tight little loin is dreaming of nights of the invasion of his coast by the Kaiser.

Where? What? There was a great fuss in parliament. Halfour stood up for the opposition to charge that the government was letting Germany get ahead, and Asquith for the government sadly admitted it.

Whereupon little less than a panic seized the newspapers and the people. "We must build more ironclad dreadnoughts, and quickly—four anyway, and, if possible, eight."

And Germany—The people of that empire struggle under an enormous debt. The upkeep of an immense military establishment is added to that of a costly navy.

And now both Germans and English are under a spell of apprehension lest one spend more money than the other! It would be humorous were it not pathetic. They are like two boys with chips on their shoulders—"one is afraid, and the other dissent."

The probability of war between these two peoples, having so many interests in common, and in these days of The Hague tribunals is exceedingly remote.

These are "Christian powers" that lay burdens that are hard to be borne on the backs of their common people, who toll on short dinners for a bare subsistence and who see their children doomed to a similar fate, all because of the war game played by a few statesmen.

The spectacle causes one to say to the aerial experimenters of our time—more power to your elbow!

May the time quickly come when a few torpedoes dropped from an airplane can send to the bottom a whole fleet of dreadnoughts. Then will the engine of destruction be the best ally of peace and bring in the day—

When the war drum thuds no longer and the battleflags are furled.

Forget to Worry.

Half the things we worry over are two-edged and two-dead. Believe this and you have conquered your troubles.

MERRY EVENING AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

Many Out-of-Town Visitors Participated in the Dance And Enjoyed the Fireworks.

Thirty-five enjoyed the weekly club supper at the golf links last night and about forty couples danced from nine to one o'clock to a series of splendid musical numbers played by Carver & Menzies' orchestra. Out in front of the clubhouse there was a fine display of fireworks all the evening. The hop was the last of the first series of six and a second series will begin next Tuesday. Among the visitors present were: The Misses Edith Dunn of Marion, Indiana, and Helen Condon of Duluth, Minn., who are guests of Miss J. L. Lovejoy, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dearborn of Chicago, Miss Margaret Samuels of Burlington, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wheeler and Miss Mabel Jackman of Milwaukee.

In the second flight of the handicap match for the Wilson Lane trophy on July 4, Al. Schaller defeated Orion Sutherland 1 up; H. S. McGiffin defeated Edward Baumann 2 up; Harold Bauck won from H. G. Carter 2 up; Leo Brownell and George Baumann halved their match; Dr. F. B. Farnsworth won from J. P. Baker 4 up and 2 to play; George Kling won from Chester Morse 2 up; J. L. Wilcox beat Frank Jackman; and Francis Grant beat Charles Schaller 3 up and 2 to play. The second round will be played today or tomorrow and the third round next Tuesday.

H. S. McGiffin and several other members of the club will go to Milwaukee this week to attend the meeting of the directors of the Wisconsin association, and complete the plans for the state tournament at Milwaukee, August 9 to 14.

10,000 VISITORS IS LOW ESTIMATE

For its Size, the Throng That Visited Janesville Yesterday Was Best Behaved on Record.

Before 5:30 last evening no less than 2,500 Beloit people had purchased interurban tickets to Janesville and at 1:30 yesterday afternoon 185 straight tickets to Janesville had been sold at just one of the Madison passenger stations. C. K. Millmore thinks that 10,000 is a low estimate of the total number of visitors in the city yesterday. All agree that it was the biggest crowd on record.

Chief Appleby worked from 4:00 a. m. yesterday until midnight. The night force were on duty all day Sunday, Sunday night, all day Monday, and most of last evening and they rendered valiant service. So, likewise, the six special patrolmen sworn in for the occasion—William Dullin, Michael Fanning, J. D. Jensen, William Saxby, Slim Doran, and George Palmer.

"Considering the volume of the crowd, it was the best behaved I ever helped to handle," says the chief. Of the twenty-one people arrested, only three were making any particular trouble. There were some little squabbles at a crowd of the saloons but the proprietors promptly ended them in most cases. The attendance was so dense in some of these places that a man had no chance to fall even if he was hit. Mr. Owen of the lightning rod concern reported that a friend of his had lost two $10 bills out of his vest pocket. That was the only case of possible theft reported.

In front of Reed's cigar store, Officer Dullin saw a man drop several bills on the sidewalk, in picking out his handkerchief. A small boy moved up, touched him on the shoulder, and called attention to the money lying on the walk. A stranger with a horse and buggy volunteered to carry home an aged man who had had one or two drinks too many. Everybody showed a disposition to lend a helping hand, guard against losses and accidents, and make the day pass pleasantly.

CIVIC PARADE WAS EXCELLENT

INDUSTRIES OF JANESVILLE WELL REPRESENTED.

MANY BEAUTIFUL FLOATS

The Exhibits Showed Both Cleverness And Ingenuity in Design And Execution.

Janesville's big civic parade yesterday morning started off the numerous successes of the celebration. Although largely an advertising proposition, the floats were beautifully decorated and all showed originality in conception and design. Chairman E. T. Fish is deserving of praise for the success of the exhibition.

Line of March.

The line formed at Dodge street, passing up Pleasant to the intersection of West Milwaukee street, turning onto West Milwaukee street, down West Milwaukee street to Main street, up North Main street to North First street, down North First street to South Main street, north on South Main street to West Milwaukee street, returning up West Milwaukee street where it broke up. The speakers and the adherents were driven to the Court House park for the exercises there.

The Imperial band led the procession, followed by the carriage conveying those who took part in the exercises at the park. In this were the Hon. Wallace Ingalls, of Ithaca, speaker of the day; Rev. W. P. Christy, who spoke the invocation; Senator J. M. Whiteland, who presided at the exercises in the park, and Miss Mina Cutler, who read the Declaration of Independence. Behind this equipage were three hacks in which were the mayor and city officials and the adherents. A flag drill club of eight children in charge of Miss Maria Gibbs, from the W. C. T. U., occupied a carryall.

The Floats.

The first of the floats was that of the local union, No. 835, of the Carpenter's union, men with aprons and tools making up the exhibit. Matthew Dalton, on a big plow engine, acted as side rider. A gathering engine, corn planters and other farm implements were the exhibit of Philip Doherty. Then came Leno's band of Heloit.

Quite an elaborate float was that of Frederick S. Wetmore. A humber on horseback, followed by two on foot carrying a large sign, preceded the exhibit and then came the float proper with five little girls in white dresses and two handbaskets.

Sacks of their product, with large signs and four young ladies who distributed advertising caps to the youngsters in the crowd was the display of the agent of Jersey Lilly flour.

Samplers of their cement blocks and home sitting on cement bench seats were exhibited by the Janesville Cement Post company.

One of the handiest floats was that of W. J. Hill, the cement contractor. An eight-horse team with four men leading the horses plied the float through the streets. Two boys in white suits and a youth with a flag formed the advance guard. The float itself was decorated with flags and bunting with samples of blocks and other articles made of cement. Six pretty girls and a boy in the pinnacle of the arches on the float carried flags.

The Fort Atkinson band followed after this float.

A comely old woman with a pipe in her mouth, riding the Janesville Daily Gazette was the feature of the display by the Gazette Printing company. The wagon used for the float was plastered with papers and on those were appropriate signs. A huge roll of paper occupied the center of the platform and two young men threw advertising motes into the crowds.

A prettily decorated wagon carrying a group of little girls, with the sign—"Our Mamas Buy Their Groceries at Taylor's"—advertised the wares of that store. The three delivery wagons decorated with bunting and driven by the delivery boys and the clerks, followed.

A staidly handsome adorned with bunting and emblems and driven by one of the clerks dressed as a girl in red was sent into the parade by E. R. Winslow.

Twenty-six musketeers comprising the Janesville band came next in the line.

One of the entest equipages in the parade was the cart drawn by a pony with a clown leading it, in which was drawn a small boy. This was the float of Schindley brothers.

The "old way" and the "new way" of building houses was illustrated by Ford & Sons, contractors, on their exhibit.

Boxes and boxes of White Nickel and Mechanic's soap on the delivery wagon used by J. T. Wright, was the advertising display of that firm.

Fred Hossner's wagon fixed up suggestive of his vocation of cleaning carpets was the next in the line of march.

With the wagon tastefully decorated with bunting and cozy chairs, and two large mirrors placed back to back on a platform, formed an attractive display for the Frank D. Kimball furniture firm.

The last of the bands marching in the morning parade was the Concert band of Albion.

Engines, pumps and the waste carriages manufactured by them were on the float of the Great Western Manufacturing company.

One of the wagons of the Janesville page Milk company was used to set forth the quality of their goods.

A neat advertising design was that of the agent of the Ceresia biscuit. Appropriate placeards were placed on the rig and samples were distributed among the crowd.

Bennison & Lam's bakery wagon was followed by a float with advertisements of Marvel flour, for which they act as distributing agents.

A motor boat set in a wagon with a large sail, advertised the "Reliance" and "El Marko" brands of cigars.

Last, but not least was the float of J. M. Hostwick & Sons. In its decorations of white cloth with green branches about columns at each corner of the wagon, it was simple in adornment but attractive in appearance.

Three prizes were offered by the committee in charge of the parade for the best floats, the first award being five dollars, the second of two dollars, and the third of one dollar. The first was awarded to Philip Doherty for his float with the engines, separators and other farm machinery. The second was secured by W. J. Hill's display of cement blocks. Third went to Fred S. Wetmore. The judges were W. Staats, Jersey City, N. J.; and Joseph Ellis, Centerville, O.

H. Field for drunkenness and given another chance to keep outside the prison bars, broke the last promise he will have a chance to break for some time last evening. "You have been granted more indulgence than any man I can remember," said the Judge this morning, as he sentenced Irwin to the penitentiary for a year and six months. And the mother who had brought him his breakfast at the jail only pleaded: "Try to remember what your mother taught you and be a good boy," as he passed out to the waiting patrol wagon.

AUTO PARADE A GRAND SUCCESS

FIFTY-ONE CARS IN PAGEANT LAST NIGHT.

A BRILLIANT SPECTACLE

Was Presented to Crowds in City as Pretty Decorated Machines Passed Through Streets.

The big automobile parade last night, coming as a conclusion of the other grand parades of the celebration yesterday, was a stunner. While in former celebrations there have been excellent exhibitions, this one far eclipsed any previous record. The effect of the brilliantly lighted and colorfully decorated cars passing under the luminous arches which made Main and Milwaukee streets seem almost like a second Broadway, was beautiful. The large crowds downtown and the sparkle of the fireworks added to the general effect of the whole exhibition and brought to a most fitting end a happy and glorious day.

Fifty-one automobiles, numbering many of the cars of local people and a number from out of town, took part in the spectacle, starting down Main avenue onto Milwaukee street, and passing up Milwaukee street, then returning and going down South Main street and dispersing.

The parade was in charge of Dr. R. W. Edden and under his direction the machines assembled were given lighted Japanese lanterns and long streamers of pretty colored paper. Flags and bunting also covered many of them. The sight as the machines glided along the streets, some of them almost silent and others with the motors chugging steadily, was glorious.

The procession was headed by the "Official Car," an international Harvester company automobile buggy owned by Philip Doherty, in which rode Dr. R. W. Edden, H. Prelepp and Charles Funk. The others dropped into line behind this, keeping apart about fifty feet.

A large auto band wagon with the Evansville band followed the official car.

A feature of the pageant was the "O. T. Six," a burlesque on the Owen Thomas car. An ordinary automobile had been fixed up in caricature of the machine which is to make Janesville famous. On the front end over the engine hood was placed a small windmill and a sign with the words, "O. T. Six." On the rear was a barrel containing "Gasoline." Two placeards on the side of the car announced that it was "Made in Janesville." The occupants were disguised. Gerald Hall was the driver.

Among the local people entered in the pageant were: H. S. Lovejoy in his Ford; R. H. Barlow, Overland; C. P. Biers, Ford; Frank Block, Buick; E. R. Whistler, Maxwell; Dr. M. Althoff, Maxwell; Arthur Jones, Rambler; S. Hutchinson, Maxwell; David Holmes, Stoddard-Dayton; Harry Van Gilder, Buick; Priellip Brothers (four), Buick; H. W. Brown, Jackson; P. H. Korst, Mitchell; George S. Parker, Buick; L. G. Brewer, Cadillac; Roy Pierson, Studebaker E-M-F; Dr. M. A. Cunningham, Maxwell; E. T. Brown, Chalmers-Detroit; W. F. The Tasma Trio, two women and one man, performed some during the day, such as would break the jaw of an ordinary mortal on a wire suspended between two fifty-foot telephone poles on the Corn Exchange. Roy Carless of Janesville did some fancy bag-punching and Joe Batty twirled around, under and through a bicycle on North Main street. All and Peyer performed some laughable acrobatic stunts at the Court House Park and the Corn Exchange. Leon and Leon gave an acrobatic exhibition at the Court House Park and the Corn Exchange, while Madam Fontaine, lady contortionist, twined like a "giddy honey-suckle" on the Corn Exchange and River street.

CHAPTER III.

INTRODUCING HOLLINGSWORTH CHASE.

THE excitement attending the Skaggs-Wyckholme revelations had not yet spread to the grand duchy of Hupp-Thorberg, apparently lost as it was in the cluster of small units which went to make up a certain empire, one of the world powers. The Grand Duke Michael disdained the world at large. He had but little in common with anything that moved beyond the confines of his narrow domain. His court was sleepy, lackadaisical, unemotional, impregnable to the taunts of progression. His people were thrifty, stolid and absolutely stationary in their loyalty. His army was a mere pomp of taxation and not a thing of matter or mechanism.

The precise location of the grand duchy in the map of the world had little or nothing to do with this narrative. Indeed, were it not for the fact that the grand duke possessed a charming and most desirable daughter the Thorberg dynasty would not be mentioned at all. The grand duke's peace of mind had been severely disturbed so severely, in fact, that he was transferring his troubles to the emperor, who, in turn, felt obliged to communicate with the United States ambassador, who, in his turn, had no other alternative than to take summary action in respect to the ill-effects of a fellow countryman. Chase's conscience was even and serene, and he was resigning his post with the confidence that he had performed his obligations as an American gentleman should, even though the performance had created an extraordinary commotion. Chase was new to the old world and its customs, especially those rigorous ones which surrounded royalty and denied it the right to venture into the commonplace.

Chase had been the representative of the American government at Thorberg for six months. The American flag floated above his doorway in the Friedrichstrasse, but in all his six months of occupation not ten Americans had crossed the threshold. He was a vigorous, healthy young man, and it may well be presumed that the situation bored him. He was not a politician; no more was he an office seeker. He was a real soldier of fortune in search of affairs—in peace or in war, on land or at sea. In possession of a small income sufficiently adequate to sustain life if he managed to advance it to the purple age, but wholly incapable of supporting him as a thrifless diplomat, he was compelled to make the best of his talents, no matter what test they were put to. He left college at twenty-two, possessed of the prize-winning diploma to earn his own way without recourse to the $4,500 income from a certain trust fund. His plan also incorporated the hope to save every penny of that income for the possible "rainy day." He was now thirty. In each of several New York banks he had something like $1,000 drawing 3 per cent interest, while he picked his blithe way through the world on $2,500 a year, more or less, as chance ordained.

"When I'm forty," Chase was wont to remark to envious spendthrifts who couldn't understand his philosophy, "I'll have over a hundred thousand there, and if I live to be ninety just think what I'll have. Moreover, I may get married and have to maintain in poor wife with rich relatives, which is a terrible strain, you know. You have to live up to your wife's relatives, if you don't do anything else."

MAY PROVE FATAL.

When Will Janesville People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first.

But when you know 'tis from the kidneys;

That serious kidney troubles follow; That diabetes, Bright's disease may be the fatal end.

You will gladly profit by the following experience.

"Tis the statement of a Janesville citizen.

Mrs. M. Smith, 359 South St., Janesville, Wis., says: "I suffered severely at times from attacks of rheumatism and backache. My side also pained me and I noticed that the kidney secretions passed too frequently. A neighbor told me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I went to the People's Drug Co. and procured a box. I began to feel better in a short time after commencing their use and the kidney secretions soon became clear and regular in passage. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other kidney sufferers."

does. And she's got to marry him! That's what she gets for being a grand duke's daughter. Brabets is the heir apparent to some duchy or other over there and is supposed to be the catch of the season. You've heard of him. He was at 'Toria this season and cut quite a figure—a prince with real money in his purse, you know. I wonder why it is that our American girls can't marry the princes who have money instead of those who have none. Not that I wish any of our girls such bad luck as Brabets! I'll stake my head he'll never forget me!" Chase concluded with a sharp, reflective laugh in which his cheeks joined, for the episode which inspired it was being lively discussed in every embassy in Europe.

But to return. The advent of the princess put fresh life into the slow going city and court circles. Charming people whom Chase had never seen before seemed to spring into existence suddenly; the streets took on a new air; the hands played with a keener zest, and the army printed itself into a most amazingly presentable shape. Chase could hardly believe his success. He lifted up his chin, threw out his chest, banished the look of discontent from his face and announced to himself that Thorberg was not such a bad place after all.

For days he swung blithely through the streets, the hangdog look gone from his eyes, always happy for another glimpse of the fair sorceress who had worked the great transformation. It was two weeks before he saw her the second time. He was more enchanted by her face than before, especially as he came to realize the astonishing fact that she was kind enough to glance in his direction from time to time.

It was during the weekly concert in the Kursaal late one night. She came in with a party, among whom he recognized several of the leading personages at court.

Chase sat at a table with the French attaché just below the box occupied by the princess and her party. In spite of the fact that he was a gentleman born and bred he could not conquer countless impulses to look at the flower girl of the program.

Gradually the program led up to the feature of the evening, the rendition of a great work under the direction of a famous leader, a special guest of the music loving duke.

Chase arose and cheered with the assembly when the distinguished director made his appearance. Then he proceeded to forget the man and his grace—in fact, everything save the rapid glances above him. She was leaning forward on the rail of the box, her chin in her hand, her eyes looking steadily ahead, enthralled by the music. Suddenly she turned and looked squarely into his eyes, as if impelled by the magnetism they unconsciously employed. A little flush mounted to her brow as she quickly resumed her former attitude. Chase cursed himself for a brainless fool.

The director was at an end, and the crowd arose to cheer the bowing, smiling director. Chase cheered and shouted "Bravo!" too, because she was applauding as eagerly as the others. She called the eagerly bowing director to her box and publicly thanked him for the pleasure he had given.

Chase saw his hand as he murmured his gratitude. For the first time in his life he coveted the occupation of an orchestra leader.

The third and last time he saw the Princess Geneva before his sudden, spectacular departure from the grand duchy was at the duke's reception to the nobility of Hupp-Thorberg and to the representatives of such nations of the world as felt the necessity of having a man there in an official capacity.

CONTINUES NIGHT RIDER CASES.

Tennessee Judge Puts Trials Off to September Term.

Union City, Tenn., July 6.—The trial of the 56 men, now under indictment charged with being members of the Ku Klux Klan of night riders, will not occur until next fall.

The cases were set for yesterday, but after a conference with his assistant Attorney General Caldwell asked the court to postpone the trial. The attorney general said that he personally wished to dismiss the indictments in view of the decision of the supreme court, but his associates urged him to ask for a continuance of the cases.

Judge Jones announced from the bench that, in accordance with the request of the attorney general, he would continue the cases until the September term of court.

COOLEY RAPPS SCHOOL WORK

PRESIDENT MAKING NOT OBJECT OF INSTITUTIONS SAY EDUCATORS.

THINK BOYS ARE NEGLECTED

Members of National Council Declare It Is Not the Business of Schools to Fit Youth for the Presidency.

Denver, Col., July 6.—Following a discussion of the conditions that must rule the twentieth century the National Council of Education, a branch of the National Educational Association, decided that a "preparatory course to the presidency" is not the object of the public school system of the United States.

Edwin G. Cooley, formerly superintendent of the Chicago public schools, now the president of a Boston book concern, led the discussion of what the American school boys needs.

"While it is the privilege of every American born boy to try to become president of the United States," said Mr. Cooley, "it does not follow that it becomes the business of the public school system to fit him for that position. Some of these boys are going to be laborers, mechanics, artisans, something beside president and right now they are being neglected."

"It has come to pass that we are educating about 2,000,000 boys for the presidency and about 30,000,000 for nothing because our schools are cramming things into their heads which will be of no use to them when they begin work in the factory or on the farm."

Thomas H. Seeley, president of the Iowa State Normal school, advanced the proposition that uniformly should exist among the states in the government of the schools and that superintendents of education should be given wider powers.

This view was furthered by Edwin T. Fairchild, superintendent of public instruction of Kansas.

Religious Section Meets. Joseph Swain, president of Swarthmore college, Swarthmore, Pa., was the principal speaker before the Religious Education Association. Elmer E. Brown, United States commissioner of education, also spoke.

The board of directors chose a nominating committee which will make nominations for officers of the association to-morrow. It is proposed to nominate Elmer E. Brown, commissioner of education.

WORLD'S END COMING SOON.

Fanatics in Maine Say It Is Due September 15.

Bangor, Me., July 6.—The Holy Ghost and U. S. society, whose principal base of operations is at Bangor, Me., has received advice that the end of the world is to come at 10:20:30 a. m. Wednesday, September 15.

Rev. Frank Sanford, who originated the sect and calls himself Eljah, "The Uncrowned King," and several other euphonious titles, says so. The Holy Ghost and U. S. society followers at Bangor say he ought to know, and are making preparations to don the pure white robes, pass up to the house tops of their colony in the sequence of their village and await the dread moment. When it comes they expect to see the sky go to smash, the earth "busted" into smithereens, the sun tumbling somewhere and they themselves transplanted into the realms of bliss, while all others pass into destruction.

Meanwhile they have painted the entire tabernacle at a cost of $1,000 and bought a great rug, so that the place will look nice.

SNELL WILL CASE UP AGAIN.

Trial of Spicy Will Suit Before Court at Clinton.

Bloomington, Ill., July 6.—Tom Snell, the eccentric millionaire, is about to be acquitted, the case being called today before Judge Philbrick in the De Witt county circuit court. It is believed that it will require several days to obtain a jury. There are rumors that Richard Snell, the disinherited son, and his attorneys have offered and sensational evidence to offer, but as the letters that figured in the previous trials probably will be barred this time, the trial is not likely to be so interesting to morbid sensation-seekers. The case, however, will be desperately contested, and if those who seek to prove Col. Snell was not mentally competent to make, a will are again defeated, there will be no further effort to set aside his testament.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of good and bad. He might as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak," the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unsparing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands benefited by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol, opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer deceive you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

JAPANESE STRIKE LEADERS CHARGED WITH KIDNAPING

Action of the Hawaiian Authorities Causes Great Excitement in Honolulu.

Honolulu, July 6.—Two leaders of the striking Japanese sugar workers were arrested yesterday charged with kidnaping a strike breaker who was working on a profit sharing basis. The arrests caused excitement among the strikers and increased the ill feeling that has been shown in the last few days.

Following the arrests an investigation was set in motion which disclosed the fact that the 2,500 Japanese still on strike have picketed the portion of the city about their quarters and prevent any person not connected or in sympathy with the movement from entering the camp of the strikers. The charge on which the arrests were made was that strike breakers had been kidnaped.

Sunoda was seized in the vicinity of the strikers' camp and alleges that his captors took him to a room in a Japanese hotel where he was kept by force while his case was put on trial before certain officers of the Waiapahu branch of the Japanese Higher Wage association. At the time of his capture, Sunoda declares that he was seeking to get the services of several Japanese laborers to help him in carrying out the contract he has on a section of the Waiapahu plantation. He told the police that he believed his life would have been in danger if the police had not interrupted the trial of his case which his fellow countrymen were conducting.

TAFT AIDS IN CELEBRATION.

President Speaks at Lake Champlain Tercentenary Exercises.

Ticonderoga, N. Y., July 6.—This was the great day of the Lake Champlain tercentenary at the southern end of the lake. Early in the day a battery of field pieces on the summit of Mt. Independence, opposite old Fort Ticonderoga, thundered forth presidential and gubernatorial salutes, telling that President Taft and Gov. Hughes and their parties had arrived. The distinguished guests were taken at once to the old Fort mansion and entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. P. Poll of New York city, who own also the old fort and are having it restored at a cost of about $500,000. Already the restoration of the west barracks has been completed, and there, where Ethan Allen made his famous demand of the English commander for the surrender of the fort "in the name of the Great Jehovah and the continental congress," the exercises of the day were conducted. Near by, in a big glass frame, lies the hull of the schooner Revenge, one of Benedict Arnold's fleet that was burned by the British and recently raised from the bottom of the lake. An especially interesting feature of the exercises was a sham battle fought along the old French lines of the fort by soldiers of the Second regiment, N. Y. G. The artificial island and its pinnacles of Indian life and warfare, used yesterday at Crown Point, and brought here today, also attracted much attention. The chief addresses were by Speaker Cannon and Hamilton Mable.

The presidential party and other notable guests were entertained at dinner at the Fort mansion, and this evening the pageant will be repeated and an immense bonfire will be lighted on Mount Defiance.

CARELESSLY THROWN MATCH CAUSED BEDDING TO BURN

Fitzgerald Child Stepped on And Ignited Match That Was Laying on Floor of Bedroom.

A child stepping on a match at the Fitzgerald home at the corner of Milwaukee and Madison street, Sunday afternoon, set fire to some bedding, clothes and a dresser cloth in a bedroom on the second floor of the house. An alarm was rung in and both the East Side and West Side stations responded, but before the teams had arrived the blaze had been extinguished, having proved of less consequence than was at first supposed. This was the only call received in the past three days, when there generally is considerable danger from carelessness in the use of fireworks.

Necessity of Beauty.

Schiller in his ethical and philosophical essays wrote that "Beauty alone confers happiness on all," that under its influence men forget their limitations. Happiness is our being's end and aim. And without beauty even happiness in its perfect flowering is impossible.

Don't Think That All Milk Is Pure Even If Pasteurized

There is lots of milk that is said to be pasteurized, but it is only commercially pasteurized for the purpose of keeping it from souring.

Our pure pasteurized milk is heated to 165 degrees, to kill all diseases and germs, especially the tubercular germs. Our milk contains 1 per cent of butter fat while the law requires but 3 per cent. Time and time again, when milk from small dealers is sour, our properly pasteurized milk is sweet, pure and wholesome. It is the only safe milk for babies, especially during the hot months.

Note this article clipped from a Chicago paper in the article written to assist Commissioner Evans in his fight for compulsory pasteurization of milk for Chicago babies.

May Suffer in Hot Months.
The baby stands between these two possibilities.
If the health department wins the baby will have pasteurized milk to help it in its fight for life during the coming hot summer months.
If Altkman Hey and his following win the baby, in addition to fighting hot disease developing weather, will have to struggle against the millions of germs in the milk, where the parents are either too poor or too ignorant to know the proper care of baby's milk.

SICK MAN OR WOMAN!

The Chiropractor SAYS:

There's No Need of Suffering With Sick Bodies. There's no Need of Dosing With Noxious Drugs. There Is No Need of Being Cut to Pieces.

The Chiropractic Science Makes All This Unnecessary. I Can Tell You How to Be Well. I Prove It By My Work, Too.

Hundreds of poor sufferers are living a life of misery. Dosing with medicines, in dread of the surgeon's knife, racked and torn mentally and physically with the ills they suffer—all most invariably needlessly.

CHIROPRACTIC SCIENCE IS COMMON SENSE

It is so easily demonstrable as the most efficient way of ridding your body of disease that you will wonder why you did not try it before. If you are a doubting Thomas why not come in and let me prove my claims?

Hundreds of your neighbors KNOW what I ask you to believe. You suffer by choice if you neglect to take advantage of the marvelous efficiency of Chiropractic Science.

COME IN AND SEE ME—YOU WILL BE THANKFUL IF YOU DO.
